It is planned to start promptly at 7 o'clock so that the program will last just one hour. Choirs of the various churches, and the High school chorus will sit down in front near the stage and will lead the singing.

"The Match Girl," a short Christmas motion picture, in natural colors will be shown as an intermission, or preceding the singing, the exact place for it on the program to be decided today. This will take about 15 minutes and the balance of the hour will be spent in singing carols, the words of which will be flashed on the screen.

Treats For Children

Thursday afternoon the needy children of the city will be treated at entertainments staged by the Elks and Salem Community Service, both entertainments being at 2 p. m. A picked number will receive candy and clothing at the Elks, and the balance of the children on a list compiled by social agencies will report at the Memorial building at the same hour, where candy and toys will be distributed. Working his usual miracles, Santa Claus will appear both places at once.

Approximately 150 children will be entertained at the Christmas party of Salem lodge No. 305, B. P. O. Elks. All children invited are urged to come promptly. A large Christmas tree and a Santa Claus will be features.

The closing public entertainment will be at the National German Orphan home on the Winona rd. Friday night when the orphans will be the recipients of gifts and a program will be given.

About 100 baskets of food will be distributed to the poor through the Salvation Army and Red Cross. The Army will distribute 55 baskets at the Christmas party Thursday night at the hall. Churches and organizations are filling and distributing baskets to families listed by the Red Cross as needing such aid.

Series of Disasters In Ohio Valley

Bellaire, O., Dec. 23.—While the direful clang of funeral bells broke in discordant cadence on the silvery tin\e of Christmas chimes today, Ohio's "death valley" recounted the series of disasters that gave the tragic name to the Wegee Creek vicinity.

Four years ago a cloud burst struck the town of Webb and nine persons were drowned.

One year ago 119 men were killed in the Benwood, West Virginia mine, which worked the same vein of coal as the nine Webb miners were working when suffocated by fire Tuesday night.

NINE OHIO MINERS LOSE LIVES WHEN FIRE TRAPS THEM

Bodies Are Recovered From Mine Near Bellaire; Two Rescued

Bellaire, O., Dec. 23.—Tears and heart aches replaced Christmas cheer in this little mining town today as the begrimed underground workers prepared to bury their dead.

Nine lifeless bodies have been recovered from the Webb mine, near here, where 11 miners were entrapped late yesterday. The other two were rescued.

A falling stone hit a feed wire and caused a short circuit. Fire broke out and nine men were suffocated.

Shortly after 6 o'clock last night the district was thrown into a panic when news flashed through the settlement that the Webb mine, the largest in this territory, was on fire.

Families of the miners ran wildly to the opening.

Mine officials and rescue men were already at work.

Soon afterwards it was learned that only 11 of the mine's crew of 70 were underground.

Two Survivors

The rescuers worked frantically but could render little assistance from the outside.

The state mine rescue truck at Bellaire was dispatched to the scene of the disaster, but broke down on the way and did not arrive until more than two hours later. When it did arrive, there was no crew to man it.

Harry Pyle and Robert Hoch, were the only survivors. They owe their lives to their presence of mind in blocking themselves against the foul air by placing their coats before them in a narrow air course.

The two survivors with Jacob Schramm, were the first to discover the fire. Schramm went to notify the others. They fled in a panic towards the main entrance and were suffocated.

Shoppers Flee From Fire; Packages Are Trampled by Crowd

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 23.—Hundreds of late Christmas shoppers, loaded with bundles, fled from the Lasky Dry Goods company building here today when flames broke out on the top floors.

Though many packages were dropped and trampled beneath the milling crowd, no injuries were reported. Firemen confined the blaze to the upper part of the structure after seeing employes and customers safely to the street.

Damage was estimated at several thousand dollars.

WOMAN IS WINNER IN VOTE RECOUNT

Miss Whittingham E'ected Auditor of Alliance Over Silvers

Canton, Dec. 23.—Contest for the city auditorship of Alliance is at last settled.

Miss Elsie Whittingham, Democrat, and Charles O. Silvers, Republican, tied in the November election and Miss Whittingham was declared elected when the county board of elections tossed a coin.

Silvers attacked this method of deciding the election, filed suit in common pleas court, but before the suit was tried the principals agreed to have the votes recounted. That was finished today.

Miss Whittingham gained 40 and Silvers 29, making the former's total vote 2,312 and the latter's 2,295.

Miss Whittingham had already been given a certificate of election and it will be allowed to stand.

PEACE ALONE WILL BRING PROSPERITY TO WORLD—STANTON

England France, Germany Need Markets, Alliance Man Tells Rotary

RECENTLY TOURED EUROPEAN NATIONS

Praises Locarno Pact As Step Toward Peace And Security

Declaring that prosperity cannot come to the world until peace comes and strongly urging the United States to enter the world court, B. F. Stanton, superintendent of schools in Alliance, speaking before Salem Rotary club Tuesday afternoon, praised the Locarno pact as the greatest step toward peace and security among European nations.

Prof Stanton toured England, France, Germany and Switzerland with a party last summer, when he studied economic conditions abroad. His observations included unemployment conditions in England, where 1,110,000 men are idle largely as result of economic conditions resultant from the World war. Since the war England has lost many of its markets, notably the coal trade, and as a result large mines are idle or are being operated at a loss.

The speaker said he found little or no squalor in Germany, but instead well-kept homes and farms tilled better than in most countries. Germany wants peace, he said, in spite of the reports frequently heard that German mothers are instilling in their sons the thought that they must face another war before many years.

Europe Needs Markets

In France Mr. Stanton found a nerve-shocked people who have not recovered from the effects of constant fear of being shelled or gassed for four years during the war.

What England, France and Germany need is markets, he declared and national stability cannot come to those countries, confronted with billions of dollars of war debts. He says he found no criticism of the Dawes plan in Europe, but neither did he find much enthusiasm over it. However, it has been accepted as a workable program, and the Europeans are willing to give it a fair trial.

Mr. Stanton was introduced by Harry W. Young, his brother-in-law.

At this meeting Ralph Woods and C. E. Tolerton were elected to membership in the Rotary club. Next Tuesday the club will hold its annual entertainment for the crippled children. L. P. Metzger, chairman of the committee in charge of this phase of the club's work, is arranging the program.

NABS SHOPLIFTER TAKING PAJAMAS

Woman Fails to get Hubby's Present Free at the Regent Store

A shoplifter was caught in the act of taking several pairs of imported silk pajamas from the Regent specialty shop, Main st., Tuesday afternoon, Manager Harry Goldberg reported today.

Warned earlier in the day that three negroes were trying to take merchandise at various stores, making good in an attempt at the Fair store, the Regent store manager suspected a woman who came in late Tuesday, supposedly to make a purchase.

She bought some trivial thing, and gave the clerk a large bill to change so that her attention would be occupied temporarily. The manager saw the woman put her hand behind her back and pick up the valuable pajamas and place them in her basket. He walked quietly over, took the pajamas out, and ordered the woman to leave the store.

Salem merchants were considerably annoyed the past few days with attempted shoplifting and all clerks have been asked to keep a keen eye out for these persons who are getting their Christmas gifts by this method.

Six Firemen Killed In Fires; 5 Children Trampled To Death

Waynesburg, Pa., Dec 23—Five firemen were killed and a sixth critically injured when they were caught under a falling wall, while fighting a $700,000 blaze that cut a deep swath through the business district here today.

The dead: William Finch, Herman Long, Joe Risenbarg, William Hanks, Harvey Call.

The critically injured—Victor Siziores.

The fire started in the Hotel Downing and spread rapidly to adjoining buildings menacing the Greene county court house. At 9 o'clock the fire still was raging beyond control of the combined fire fighting force of almost a dozen surrounding towns.

Spectacular Fire

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 23.—One fireman was killed and four others seriously injured early today while fighting a spectacular fire in the grain warehouse of E. Steen & Bro.

Capt. Harry Jones was instantly killed when a wall collapsed burying him and four others in the ruins. The injured firemen are Capt. Valentine B. Englehardt, George C. Holdorf, M D. Weber and William Schetter.

The fire was still burning merely at 9 a. m. and it is estimated the damage will exceed $100,000.

The warehouse is adjacent to the government's liquor storage warehouse where 2,000,000 gallons of whiskey are in storage. Several streams of water are being played on the structure to prevent it from taking fire.

Children Trampled

Erie, Pa., Dec. 24.—A pall cast over the yuletide, Erie today was recovering from a shock of sorrow which came with the death of three children when 5,000 kiddies of the city attending a huge Christmas party, stampeded in an effort to find exit from the Erie arena. Seven were badly hurt.

The dead:

Billie Wagner, nine years old.

Eileen Rickrode, nine.

Raymond Kuperiski, nine.

The children were attending a party given by a newspaper here when police and firemen attempted to clear the doorways of the crowd's overflow. It was then that they became panic stricken and rushed for the exits, trampling scores.

A small bench seating several of the children collapsed, and although no one was hurt, police and firemen attempted to enter the building to check up. Suddenly the mirth and joyous excitement changed into a panic with the children screaming and strugling to find a way out of the arena.

Attendants tried to calm the crowd. The accidents were attributed to the fact that more than 1,000 who failed to get into the arena had blocked all outlets. Scores were cut and bruised but ran away before medical treatment could be given them.

ACCUSES MAN OF HAVING MARRIED OVER 48 WOMEN

One Wife Suing for Divorce Claims to Have Trailed Marrying "Johnny"

Chicago, Dec. 23.—John V. Widemier, international love pirate, today was accused by one of his known wives, Mrs. Esther Waxler Brooks, testifying in her own divorce suit, of having married no less than 48 other women.

"I have found nine other 'wives' beside myself without half trying," Mrs. "Brook" told Judge Harry A. Lewis.

"This man to whom I thought I was married is an Austraian," she said. "His right name is Sigmund Engel. I met him in Minneapolis—an interesting man of about 50 who said his name was Brooks, that he was a writer and was on his way to Hollywood to do a few scenarios.

"We were married in Des Moines 60 days later, on Nov. 11, 1924. A month later he deserted me, taking with him $13,000 that belonged to my foster parents.

Follows His Trail

"I started investigating. Within three months after he deserted me, I learned he was married again, to a girl named Olga Fuerth from whom he got $6,500 before he left her. There was a St. Paul woman from whom he got $9,500; one in south who gave him $8,000—why judge, I found nine of them without half trying. The old game he played certainly was effective.

"How much do you think this man is worth?" asked Judge Lewis.

"A million—or more," declared Mrs. "Brook."

"You women ought to have conservators for your money appointed," the court commented in announcing that the decree probably would be granted.

"How did you manage to get so much evidence?" Mrs. "Brook," was asked.

She replied that she had been appearing on the vaudeville stage—as a violinist in a "kiddie" role—that her performances take her all over the country and she thus was able to learn a great deal about Widemier.

"You see, I got a list of the many aliases under which he operates, and armed with that, I've searched marriage license records, found where he had obtained them and then interviewed such of the women he married as I could locate," she explained.

ALEX KEAN FIGHTS BANDITS; WOUNDS MAY PROVE FATAL

Man Who Recently Came to Salem Is Attacked By Two Young Men

ONE FIRES SHOT, THEN BOTH FLEE

Kean Thought Youth Were Bluffing as They Ordered Hands Up

Defying two youthful bandits, Alex Kean, 40 of Salem, was shot in the chest when he was held up in Alliance about 9 p. m. Tuesday, and is believed to be dying in the Alliance City hospital.

The Salem man, who just recently made his home here, coming here from Alliance, had gone to the latter city to see a friend who lives on Seneca ave, seven blocks from the business district.

As he approached the friend's house, two youths confronted him and ordered him to throw up his hands.

Instead, he told later, he started to fight both of them, thinking they were bluffing him as he could see no gun.

One bandit drew a gun and fired from close range, the bullet entering Kean's right chest at an angle, and coming out under the left arm.

Both youths fled without taking any of Kean's valuables.

Kean struggled to his feet, and covered with blood, he staggered to his friend's home where he collapsed. A physician was called and he rushed Kean to the hospital.

The man believes two shots were fired and an X-ray picture will be taken today to determine if there is a bullet embedded in Kean's chest. He is in a very serious condition and physicians fear complications may set in, due to the jagged wound and his condition, caused by loss of blood.

Kean is a bachelor and a carpenter. It was said at Alliance today. He is not known here but is well known in the Stark city, having been born at Best Station, near Alliance.

BROOKES ORDERS PROBE OF DEATH

Find Man's Body In Vacant Wellsville Building; Prosecutor Acts

Wellsville, Dec 23. — Prosecuting Att'y. Robert M. Brookes of Columbiana county today ordered a searching inquiry into the death of Charles Decie 30, of Pittsburg, whose body was found at the top of a stairway in a vacant building here.

Police, although maintaining secrecy, suspect Decie was murdered. Two bruises on his head add strength to the theory.

Coroner J. M. VanFossan, of East Palestine, who conducted an inquest returned a verdict of alcoholism.

A railroad ticket to Pittsburg, Pa., a watch and other valuables were found in Decie's pockets. He had been employed here by the Pittsburg Construction company. His body was shipped to Pittsburg.

NEW CURB PLACED ON DRY OFFICERS

Unjustiafiable Expenses To Obtain Evidence Will Bring Dismissal

Washington, Dec. 23.—The prohibition enforcement agent who, hereafter, unjustifiably spends public money to secure "evidence" against minor violators of the Volstead law will be severely disciplined, or discharged from the service.

This dictum was laid down to the organization today by Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, in a general letter to the prohibition administrators of all states.

The new instructions to dry agents resulted from the disclosures in the Mayflower hotel case here, in which it was revealed that an enforcement agent posed as a member of congress and lived at the hotel for a month, entertaining lavishly at the taxpayers' expense, in order to "get" the maitre she had swallowed poison.

Although this agent, E. O. Bingfeld, spent approximately $1,000, the jury that tried the hotel officer rendered a prompt acquittal.

Andrews described the entrapment of the hotel officer, as "a ridiculous" proceeding and declared it violated his whole theory of law enforcement. He charged his administrations to see there is no recurrence of such an episode.

King's Anti-Gossip Bill Is Aimed At Whisperer's Paradise

Washington, Dec. 23 —The national capital has long been known as "the whisperer's paradise."

It has been said that if one stood long enough in its hotel lobbies and peacock alleys one could hear the reputation of every man in public life torn to shreds—and many women as well.

But this is going to be changed, if Senator King, (D) of Utah, has his way. He announced today that soon after congress reconvenes he will ask enactment of his anti-gossip law applying to the District of Columbia. It would provide a penalty of $100 and jail sentence for repeating "false and malicious stories" or "circulating false and derogatory" rumors concerning the character and integrity of those in official life.

In the past, Senator King said, no one has been safe. Presidents of the United States and their aleged profligacies, usually false, have been particular victims of the scandal-mongers.

"There is protection against publication of scandalous and untrue charges against an individual," said King, "why not against the word-of-mouth detractor?"

The Utah senator declined to state what particular stories inspired his anti-gossip statute, but it was said he had in mind one tid-bit recently given wide circulation, which involved one of the most widely known men in public life, and the wife of a high government official. The rumor, though false, was circulated even by some of their mutual friends because it contained an element of vicious humor.

"I intend to put a quietus on this malicious gossip business if it's possible," said King.

"Many states already have a statute on slander, making it a misdemeanor to circulate false attacks on person's character. There is none in Washington, except one relating to attacks on a woman's chastity, and my intention is to bridge this gap."

King's proposed anti-gossip law would provide a fine of $100, a jail sentence of 100 days either or both, for any person found guilty of "willfully and maliciously" starting a false rumor or repeating a false statement against the character of another person.

Paris With Its Mistletoe Man Alive With Holiday Spirit

Paris, Dec. 23.—The mistle-toe man has made his appearance on the boulevards, and Paris is alive with the Christmae spirit, financial crisis or no.

The mistle-toe man, wearing his usual old blue smock, a faded scarf swatched about his neck and wooden sabots upon his feet, is the inevitable sign of Christmas in Paris, and of what is more important the approaching new year. Across one shoulder is the great pole with big bunches of white berried mistle-toe swinging merrily at each end.

The little Christmas barraques are also popping up like mushrooms ready to make money while the sun shines or the rain pours. These picturesque tradesmen will hold their annual sales until Twelfth night, if "the good Doumergue is willing." They take up a good share of the sidewalks which are not already cluttered with cafe chairs, but they afford a good deal of amucement for all passers-by.

There is a diminutive, but voluble inventor of a "mervous egg-beater," whipping up eggs into a love snow.

"Regardez, mesdames, messieurs. With my little invention. You can make delicious mayonnaise dressing and I would show you how to do it with the greatest of please, if eggs and oil were not so dear."

Hard by, and pressing for elbow room, is the vendor of a "birquet," a French cigar-lighter which really does light, and that is more than can be said for the usual French match.

Still another demonstrates a little rubber palatte which "will clean windows better than the best parlor maid."

For the boudevardiers there are necktie "fixers," with which a daney, whose resources are limited can make "beautiful cravets with odd pieces of silk, left over from his wife's dressmaking. Another calls upon "messiuers" to stop and wonder, while he demonstrates a queer copper wire contraption which presses trousers while you wait.

COMPARATIVE SALARIES

Baseball authorities have increased the salary of Ban Johnson from $30,000, the sum he has been paid in the past, to $40,000, the sum he is to be paid for a term of years. The president of the University of Michigan, one of the fine old popular places of higher education, is paid a salary of $24,000 and that sum is well above salaries paid to other university presidents in this section of the country. But Ban Johnson is not the only well paid official in organized baseball for Judge Landis ranks him in power and salary, is paid $50,000 a year and has been from the time he accepted the position.

The president of the United States has the most wearing and difficult position of any man in the country, and he draws a salary of $75,000, less than the combined salaries of the two high powers in organized baseball. The vice president of the United States has a task that is unwelcome when many of its obligations are considered. In the past the pay has been only $12,000 per year, but congress recently in a spirit of generosity, raised it to $15,000, or about the sum paid to presidents of great universities of high standing and less than is paid to presidents of many small but popular institutions of learning.

These figures provide a comparative showing of the relative income from sport, education and government showing that is quite out of harmony with the delative importance of the work the men are called upon to do in their respective positions. The figures prove a fact that is admitted, that many college and university presidents are notoriously underpaid for the work that is given them and the service they render to the school, the public and the cause of education. William Howard Taft, chief justice of the supreme court of the United States ,head of the most important court in the world, draws a salary of $15,000 per year, a sum materially exceeded by the income of many players in baseball and well under the salaries paid baseball executives. These comparisons prove only that salaries and importance of duties performed and responsibilities carried are altogether out of harmony, when different classes of activities are grouped together.

THE NAVY FLYERS

The annual report of the chief of the Bureau of Naval Aeronautics, Admiral W. A. Moffett, is free from the pessimism which has been so conspicuous recently in certain air-flying circles—especially in the group which has taken its cue from Col. Mitchell. The admiral says that "progress during the year has been reasonably satisfactory, considering the funds appropriated." Taking this limitation into account—one imposed by the Budget Bureau and the action of congress and not by department indifference—the flying situation in the navy is, in fact, highly encouraging.

For one thing, the surface navy itself has become better acquainted with the possibilities of the flying arm and is now genuinely interested in them. There is an almost universal appreciation of the fact that the fleet must maintain an adequate and effective flying service, operated from the ships and under the control of the surface command. There is very little sentiment in the navy for a separate flying corps and still less for a unified air department.

The navy has gone along steadily developing the air arm. It has brought flying at sea to a higher state of perfection than has been attained by any other navy. It has been a pioneer in making successful use of the catapult, thanks to which many planes can now be launched simultaneously from the decks of ships in line at a signal from the flagship. Our fleet air service ranks among the first in the world. We shall soon have two superior plane carriers available and planes of the best type with which to equip them. Our air models are being steadily improved. The personnel difficulties which Admiral Moffet notes in his report will also be overcome by the time the fleet flying service and the naval air force—a separate floating body—are ready to be expanded to a proper maximum.

Naval aviation is on a fairly sound basis and the recommendations of the Morrow board report will put it on a still sounder one. It has a great future, which, fortunately, is not likely to be compromised by acceptance of the illusory and dangerous Mitchell theory of separate air command and a separate army-navy flying organization.

Q. Why are evergreens used for decoration at Christmas? M. C.S.

A. The custom of hanging evergreens in the house at Christmas time, originally had a purpose beyond decoration. In olden times, each kind of evergreen was supposed to conferr special blessings on those who passed beneath it. To pass under holly ensured good fortune for the coming year.

Q. Is the earth traveling toward the star Vega, and at what speed? C. S. G.

A. As far as the earth is concerned, the course is not a straight line, but a spiral, composed from the motion of the earth around the sun and its motion with the sun. The rate of motion is about 12 miles per second.

Q. What is meant by the "fifth estate?" P. J.

A. This term has recently been applied to that body of persons who are engaged in the preservation and advancement of the organized knowledge we know as science.

Q. When was it discovered that silk could be made from the web of the silk worm? D. T. S.

A. It is the general belief that the great importance of the silk worm was discovered by Si-ling, the wife of the Chinese Emperor Hoangti who reigned about 2367 B. C. and that she invented and taught the art of silk spinning and weaving. The great centers of this industry are China, Japan, India and southern Europe. Silk worms have been successfully raised in California, Ohio, Kansas, east Tennessee, northern Georgia, Kentucky and some parts of New Jersey.

Q. What state utilizes its water power to the greatest extent? C. F. A.

A. California formerly held first place, but has now been superseded by New York. This state produces about 20 per cent of its electricity by means of its water power. It is estimated that more than 80,000,000 kilowatt hours of electricity are produced in the United States each year.

Q. What is the leading distinction between a rifle and other guns? G. R. T.

A. A rifle is a gun in which, by means of grooves in the bore or otherwise, the projectile is forced to rotate before leaving the barrel. This rotatory motion, maintained during flight, lessens the tendency to depart from a straight line and in a measure overcomes atmospheric resistance.

Q. Is rubber produced from the sap of plants? N. D.

A. The milky juice or latex yielded by a number of different trees, shrubs and vines, from which through coagulation rubber is derived, is not the sap, on the circulation of which the nutrition of the trees, etc., depends. Its exact function in the plant appears not to be fully understood.

Q. What is a pilot fish? O. A. S.

A. It is a fish of the open ocean, of the family of horse-mackerels, attaining a length of about 12 inches, having a peculiar habit of keeping company with ships and large fishes, especially sharks.

Q. Does the wind blow at the North and South Poles? C. L. K.

A. The Weather Bureau says that wind does occur at both poles of the earth.

WIFE OF APOSTLE BUYS SECT HOME

Mrs. Edna George Buyer of Former Lupton Home Near Alliance

Property of the Kingdom of God Brotherhood Association, near Alliance, the home of strange religious sects for many years was sold Tuesday to Mrs. Edna B. George, wife of "Apostle George," whose convert disciples have been in charge for some time.

The "kingdom" first came to public notice 15 years ago when Rev. Levi Lupton, head of a gift of tongues cult, left hurriedly just before a posse visited the place as a result of revelations concerning the spiritual advisors' relations with one of his converts.

"Apostle George" followed Lupton, leadership of the home and was held in custody for several days when a girl member of the colony died under strange circumstances. He was adsolved from connection with her death when an inquiry showed that she had died from anemia to which religious frenzy was a contributing cause.

George left after his release but has returned and is again the leader of the colony. The sale price is $8,000.

SHAW DAMAGE CASE SETTLED BY WEBB

Fomer Head of Fairmount Reaches Agreement In Flogging Case

Canton, Dec. 23.—Settlement of the $25,000 damage suit of William L. Shaw against E. E. Webb, former superintendent of the Fairmount Children's Home and others was announced yesterday by Common Pleas Judge Charles Krichbaum. Terms of the settlement were not made public. The defendants paid the court costs.

Several attempts had been made at settelment while the trial was in progress. Negotiations were resumed Monday afternoon when the case was resumed after a week end recess.

The suit was brought by Shaw for injuries said to have been received when he was kidnaped and flogged by a band of masked men.

Judge Krichbaum scored both sides saying: "You ought to be ashamed of yourselves. You have played the baby. You have attempted to take the law into your own hands, which is a dangerous and un-American course to follow. You ought to be men enough to get together, turn over a new leaf and make a new start as friends."

PAVING OF UNITY ROAD IS ASSURED

Improvement of the Unity-Springfield road is now assured, according to an agreement approved by the county commissioners.

During a conference of Unity township people, headed by Attorney L. M. Kyes of East Palestine, with the commissioners, in which State Division Highway Engineer Fred Swineford of Ravenna took part, it was reported the sum of approximately $5,000 is available for the improvement of the road before a permanent top is built.

Property owners along this road will donate about $3,000 for this work and the state will put about $2,000 or more into the project. It may follow that a slag road will be built for the present, and then within the next two years it is likely a concrete top will be spread. This will give another improved highway to connect Columbiana county with Mahoning.

FESTIVAL OF JOY FOR FOUR PERSONS

Train Strikes Two Autos Occupants Hurled Many Feet; Hurts Slight

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 23.—Christmas will be a veritable festival of joy and thankfulness this year for four persons, who last night escaped death under the wheels of fast passenger trains, by a miracle, in different parts of the city.

They are James I Williams, 23 years old, mayor of New Richmond, Ohio; Miss Eleanor Burkhardt, 19 years old, of the same community, Edward Brossard, and his wife Lucille of Cleveland.

Williams and Miss Burkhardt were riding in an automobile which was struck by a Pennsylvania flyer in the East End. Williams yelling to his compaion to jump, threw himself from the automobile, but the girl, paralyzed with fright, was hurled 200 feet through the air and pinned to the ground by the wreckage of the automobile.

Picked up for dead and brought to the Good Samaratian hospital, Miss Burkhardt startled physicians and nurses by suddenly sitting up and asking her whereabouts. Her injuries consist of superficial cuts and bruises. She will be able to leave the hospital today.

No less marvelous is the escape of Mr. and Mrs. Brossard. Their automobile was hit at Hoffner ave. by a fast B. and O. train. In this case it was the woman who was able to save herself by jumping.

Brossard, unable to open the door of the closed car quickly enough on his side, was hurled 100 feet through the air, but escaped with a minor fracture of the hip and bruises. The automobile was wrecked.

TWO SHIPS SINK SAYS AIR REPORT

Boston, Dec. 23.—Gale-swept reaches of the North Atlantic penetrated only by fragmentary radiograms and wireless messages, today held the details of one marine disaster and possible two.

That the Italian freight steamship, Marina went down off the Newfoundland coast, that the steamship, Newtonhall stood by, that 16 men from the Marina were picked up in a life boat by the steamship "C. I. P." that 16 others in another Marina life boat are missing and that a message with the words "sunk: all hands" came through the air are the known facts.

COOLIDGE STAND ON ARMS PARLEY PLEASES LONDON

London, Dec. 23.—Washington reports that the United States is prepared to accept the league's invitation to participate in the disarmament discussion at Geneva produced a distinctly favorable impression here today.

The decision, government officials affirmed, bears out the prevailing belief that President Coolidge is desirous of and willing to co-operate with the league despite the surface coolness of his recent utterances.

The opinion was expressed that the attendance of American delegates at the prelimiary meeting of the parley will virtually guarantee complete participation in the plenary conference later.

100 MISSING GIRLS ARE IN CHINATOWN

Cleanup Ordered When It's Learned White Girls Live With Chinese

New York, Dec. 23.—A campaign to clean up Chinatown was predicted today when detectives, searching for the missing 19-year-old Julia Vetterlein and her Chinese admirer, Sing Foo, discovered that more than one hundred white girls are living with Chinese in this mysterious part of New York's underworld.

Many of these girls have been reported "missing." None of them, apparently wanted to return to their homes.

The police could find no trace of Julia, however, or of the young Chinese "chiek" wich whom she is said to have been in love. Detectives virtually abandoned hope of finding her alive, and began searching for the body.

Police fear Julia met the same fate as Elsie Sigel, the society missionary who was murdered in 1909 in Chinatown and whose slayer is uncaught.

BUTLER FORMALLY DISMISSED TODAY

Mayor Says Marine Hasn't Appreciation of Obligation to Him

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 23.—Brig. Gen. Smedley D. Butler was formally dismissed as director of public safety of Philadelphia by Mayor W. Freeland Kendrick shortly before noon today.

When Butler arrived at his office in city hall he found the following communication from the mayor:

"Your letter of Dec. 22, inquiring why I request your resignation and relieve you from duty, received.

"While I am not required by law to give a reason for a dismissal of a director, in order to comply with your request I may say that you have not a proper appreciation of the obligation which you owe to the mayor as your superior officer.

"As a confidant the harmonious relationship, which should exist between us as mayor and director of public safety, has, by your action been completely destroyed.

"As you failed to comply with my request for your resignation I hereby dismiss you as director of public safety, the dismissal to take effect at 12 noon today.

"You will turn over your office to Assistant Director Elliott."

Butler, who came to his office in "civies," said after reading the letter:

"Guess I better get ready and turn all this stuff over to George."

He then called his wife on the telephone and told her that he had been "fired" and that she should not worry.

BORAH IN FAVOR OF ARMS PARLEY AS NOW PLANNED

Washington, Dec. 23.—Congressional sanction of American participation in the league of nations' disarmament conference was virtually assured here today.

President Coolidge and Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, leader of the senate irreconcilables, had a conference at the White House, and at its conclusion Borah said:

"So far as I understand the president's position, I am in accord with it."

This was taken to indicate that the irreconcilable group in the senate will interpose no objections to an appropriation to defray the expenses of an American delegation to Geneva to attend the meeting of the preparatory commission which is to map out an agenda for the forthcoming conference.

OLD FASHIONED COLORS POPULAR NEXT SPRING, SAYS TEXTILE SOCIETY

Feminine colors are coming back next spring.

Feminine colors so soft and shadowy that they might have been hiding in the old fashioned trunks in your garret through the long, long years.

The new colors are going to miss the powdered wigs and the panniers that our great grandmothers loved to wear.

They are going to wonder a little at bobbed hair and straight slim silhouettes.

Will they be just a little bit shocked at rolled stockings and garters, do you suppose? In their day garters were best somewhere under frills and laces and ribbon bows.

According to the Textile Color Card Association of the United States which has just released its card of spring colors, the soft old colors of violet yesterdays are coming back—colors that were worn when knighthood was in flower, so to speak, and chivalry bloomed in quaint old gardens.

But they will miss the satin chairs court carriages and livered footmen.

Nevertheless, the color trunks are packed and will be here when the first spring bonnets come.

Colors are going to be delicate pastel or crayon tones.

Soft pinks and blues, the kind that we tied into enormous half ribbons when we were very little; violets, drowsy as sleepy flowers; greens, wind blown and clear as the sea!

Colors that breathe of a glorious yesterday when satin ladies ruled mighty statesmen by a smile or a veiled look; when there really were women behind the golden throngs of dancing kingdoms.

Those famous ladies of the gay kingdoms bequeathed their names to their favorite colors, or else someone did it for them, for we find them on the textile card.

"There is in vallliere, a silvery mauve, like faded Parma violets; Marie Antoinette, a gray-rose, a variant of the popular bois de rose; maintenon and chevreuse, which carry this range from the brownish pinks over into the pinkish browns," the bulletin says.

The famous places where beauty bathered to carry off the silken role are remembered, too. Malmaison, Chantilly, Fontainebleau and Versailles are all new color names.

Blue holds a prominent place on the chart. Monaco and Mediterranean are clear blue greens, like a piece of a summer sea hung out to dry. Cathedral blue, we are told, is "that gorgeous tone like the blending of sapphires and amethysts, that is found at its loveliest in the three unforgettable windows of the cathedral at Chartres." Blue-lavender, too, is going to be popular.

Phantom red, a scarlet with a gleam of yellow, which must have been worn on state occasions will continue in favor.

Gray will be good also. "Crystal gray is soft and clear with the pinkish cast that marks next season's grays. Metallic gray has the burnished gleam of platinum, and rosetta is a darker shade, a rich shade like the rosetta stone that unlocked all the secrets of Egypt to the world."

We can't be too old fashioned, perhaps. Anyway, a group of merrier, more frolicsome colors are going to be present at the color party. They are going to be as independent as you please, even if the lavender does flutter a little and the pinks and blue beg for smelling salts.

The color card states that they have the "directness, the brilliance, and dash, that were found in the painting, the fabrics, the jewels and very buildings of the Exposition of Decorative Arts in Paris."

Green, by the way, is a favorite already. Lovebird is achieving the most prominence.

MAN IS SHOT ON EVE OF OPENING OF DIVORCE CASE

Cleveland, Dec. 23.—Divorce proceedings against Edward Ward, 38, by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Ward, were erased from the court files here today following Ward's alleged murder at the hands of a boarder in the home of his estranged wife, police charge.

Ward went to his wife's home to effect a reconciliation. There he met a boarder. He is said by the wife to have engaged in a fight with the boarder who procured a pistol and shot Ward three times. Ward slumped into a chair and was dead before aid reached him.

He was a former Newberg Heights dry leader.

The man said to have done the shooting was still at large today but was expected to give himself up.

Mr. Ward's mother and aunt had arrived an hour earlier in Cleveland from their home in Marion, Ohio, to be present at the divorce hearing.

FRANCE DAMAGED BY SEVERE STORM

Paris, Dec. 23.—France was slowly returning to normal conditions today after one of the worst storms in years.

The casualties are not definitely known as yet, but at least two persons were killed and many seriously injured in the 90-mile gale which swept the country.

Trees were uprooted, houses unroofed, railroad traffic paralyzed and telegraph and telephone communication destroyed. Coastwise and channel shipping was at a standstill.

The storm swept into Spain and along the coast, and according to reports today, heavy property damage was done.

Chicago—While the family ate dinner in the kitchen to save money, a thief entered the Abraham Prohoving home and stole a $3,500 mink coat.

WEST AND ELKRUN WILL PAVE ROADS

West and Elkrun townships have laid the foundation for the first work on their secondary road systems and have announced their plans to the county commissioners. Work is to begin on several of these roads in January.

Elkrun township trustees propose to use the money they obtain through the Green law, or $1,000 now in the county treasury awaiting the order of the trustees, on one mile of the "Fingerboard Hill" rd., beginning at Elkton and working south one mile. An assessment of not more than $2,000 per mile is allowed under the Green law in addition of $1,000 already provided by the state.

In West township, the trustees have agreed to begin work on a mile of road extending north of Bayard paralleling the C. & P. railroad to the Columbiana-Stark county line.

Trustees of both townships appeared before the county commissioners Monday afternoon and lines for the grading have been ordered prepared by County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk.

COURT NEWS

MORE THAN FIFTY CASES FILED FOR NEXT GRAND JURY

The January term of court gives early promise of being one of the most active in recent years, according to the bar docket for that term which has just been issued by Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine.

A total of 695 cases are listed in the new docket as against 697 in the September docket, but since the January docket has been issued about a dozen additional cases have been filed, many of which are to come up during the January term of court.

Over 50 cases have been filed with Clerk Ballantine which will come before the January grand jury which will go into session at 11 o'clock Jan 4. An additional number of criminal cases remain to be received by Mr Ballantine from the East Liverpool and Wellsville municipal courts, and it is also said that a number of justices of the peace throughout the country have grand jury cases on their dockets for which no transcripts have been filed.

"Every criminal transcript should be filed with the clerk of courts before Dec. 30," announced Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. Brookes today. "This is necessary, as this office desires to get in touch with all witnesses before they are summoned. There is no use in delaying the filing of transcripts, and they should be filed within a few days after disposition of cases has been had in the lower courts," Mr. Brookes declared.

Gets $2,500 Alimony

Alimony has been placed at $2,500 in the divorce case tried before Judge James G. Moore wherein a decree was granted in the case of Margaret G. Rehman against her husband John D. Rehman. The plaitiff was represented by Lones, Hill and Davidson of East Liverpool, while the defendant was represented by Attorney W. A. O'Grady of Wellsville. In this case there was a trial to the court, and the decree was granted the plaintiff on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

Mrs. Rehman was then granted her prayer to be restored to her maiden name, that of Harriet G. Wilke.

As alimony, the court set the amount at $2,500, which is the largest judgment of the kind handed down in divorce court in this county in several years. The defendant is also to pay the costs in this case.

Prisoner Paroled

Upon the recommendation of Justice of the Peace P. V. Mackall, of East Liverpool, the county commissioners have paroled Lorenzo Harmon charged with a violation of the liquor laws. He has paid a part of the fine of $500 and the costs in the case, and has made an agreement with the commissioners for discounting of the balance of the fine.

Title To Be Quited

In the case of Homer C. Hilliard against Lydia A. Hilliard, an action brought to quiet the title to certain real estate, there has been a trial to the court, and a decree has been granted the plaintiff as prayed for, and at the costs of the plaintiff.

Order Citation Returned

The citation has been ordered returned forthwith by Judge James G. Moore in the divorce action filed by Marie Prince of Salem against her husband, Paul Prince. The action was filed Aug. 28 last, and a citation for the defendant was issued for Oct. 16, hearing on the citation was scheduled to come up Nov. 2, and as the defendant has not obeyed the order of the court, the citation is to be put into effect.

Will File Answer

Leave has been granted John E. Smith, to file his answer and cross petition at once in the case of J. C. McIntosh against John E. Smith and Floda B. Smith which was filed on the appearance docket Dec. 12, 1924. The action is based on a note for $1,190.47, judgment on which is sought by the plaintiff.

GRANT RECESS IN OHIO PHONE RATE HEARING

Columbus, Dec. 23—Hearing before the state utilities commission in connection with the states investigation of the telephone rate situation throughout Ohio will be resumed on January 12.

A 20 day recess was granted by the commission at the conclusion of the hearing late Tuesday upon request from the Ohio Bell Telephone company's attorneys.

Counsel for the company explained that more time was needed for completing the inventory its appraisers are making of its properties throughout the state.

The company preferred a 40-day recess, or until about February 1, bt the commission declined to grant so long a continuance. Members of the commission voiced their disapproval of the failure of the company to complete enough of their inventory so as to permit a hearing today.

MARGARET MAKES OWN THRILLS IN DETENTION HOME

Columbus, Dec. 23.—Margaret Trimble, 17, who married Eugene Trimble, 19, of Mt. Sterling, Dec. 4 and eloped with William Millhone, 21, Cambridge, Ohio, newspaper reporter Dec. 5, can't stand the thrilless life of a detention home.

Held in custody here while her "pinch hitter sweetie" prepares an appeal from Judge Bostwick's fine of $50 for "kidnaping" her, Mrs. Trimble decided to throw a scare into her captors.

Grasping her throat and gasping inarticularly, she told authorities today she had swalowed poison.

An empty cough syrup bottle "tipped off" her exploit.

SALEM FIVE SEEKS REVENGE TONIGHT

Lucky Dogs Will Encounter Flashy Opposition In Struthers Team

Revenge, in big, round, red letters, will be the chief thought in the minds of members of the Salem Lucky Dogs when they take the floor Wednesday night at the Memorial building against the Struthers A. C.

First, in the matter of revenge, is that Armistice day football game in which Struthers shattered Salem's hopes of a victory by tying the score in the last minute. And second, and just as annoying, is the memory of last year's defeat of the Dogs, then the Aces, at the hands of the steel town cagers.

Hoping to point this moral, Coach Joe Kelley of the Dogs has been telling his team Christmas stories with a punch in them at practice this week. The watchword will be "beat Struthers," and fans will take up that cry tonight.

The Luckies will be up against a far stiffer proposition tinoght than they faced in the game here last week with the Canton K. of C. Struthers has a team of veterans who have played together for several years and they know how to toss in the baskets, which is the victory making part of basketball.

Coach Kelley will probably leave the lineup to Captain Springer. Those likely to star are Springer at center Al Sartick and Morris forwards; Saunders and Ray Judge guards. The Dogs have the best two guards in the county in Ray Judge and Chris Roessler and they will alternate at that position.

The preliminary will start at 7:30 p. m. between the Salem Tires of the city league and the independent five from North Jackson. The main game will follow promptly, and Hugh McPhee, Youngstown official, will referee.

DEMINGS LOSE TO SALEM TIRES 20-6

Facing what seems to be the most powerful five in the league, the Deming cagers were unable to make much headway against the Salem Tires in a city league game at the Memorial building Tuesday night, and lost, 20 to 6, in a one-sided contest. The Tires were not headed in any period.

In the second city circuit game Mullins won on a forfeit from the Electric Furnace as the latter shop was unable to appear due to overtime work at the plant.

St. Paul's defeated the English Lutherans, 28 to 3, in the church league game of the evening.

McGRAW REFUSES TO TRADE KELLY FOR ED ROUSH

New York, Dec. 23. — John McGraw's announcement that he had declined to trade George Kelly for Ed Roush and Fred Fitzsimmons, American association recruit, for Adolfo Luque was regarded by baseball men today as meaning that McGraw intends to stand pat with his Giants for 1926, in spite of predictions to the contrary.

The Giant leader himself indicated this when he said he planned to start Al Tyson, Louisville recruit, in center field, one of the weak positions on the local club

In discussing the proposed Cincinnati deals, McGraw said:

"ousb, a great outfielder and hitter has had bad legs for several seasons. Kelly will outlast him by quite a few years and I'd rather have George on my ball club, anyhow. As for Luque, he is more than 30 and has seen his best days. Fitzsimmons' career is before him.

Negligence on the part of Stockwell is charged by McClun. The car driven by McClun is claimed to have been damaged to the extent of the judgment sought by the plaintiff.

BETTER USE OF RUBBER SOUGHT

Hoover Starts Campaign To Get U. S. To Help Offset Rubber Monopoly

Washington, Dec. 23.—In an effort to offset the high prices imposed by the alleged British rubber monopoly, American manufacturers, under the direction of Secretary of Commerce Hoover, today launched a nation-wide campaign for the better utilization of rubber.

Chief rubber users of the country met with Hoover at the commerce department to map out the campaign.

The chief purpose is to combat the "high prices on rubber imposed by the East Indian rubber combine."

An investigation of the rubber and other alleged foreign monopolies has been ordered by the house.

"THAT ROYLE GIRL"

Tonight the State will show "A Woman of the World," Pola Negri's new picture, for the last time.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday the State will have D. W. Griffith's "That Royle Girl," a melodramatic picturization of Edwin Balmer's heart-throbbing Cosmopolitan Magazine serial. The hand-picked cast is headed by such favorites as Carol Dempster, W. C. Fields, James Kirkwood and Harrison Ford.

In this, Griffith's initial picture under the Paramount banner, the old master turns the lens-light of his art of a thrilling story of modern life—a story, laid against the glittering and sinister backgroud of Chicago's roaring nightlife and underworld, in which tragedy, intrigue and madcap pursuit of excitement are some of the startling, dramatic elements.

The action of the plot centers around Joan Daisy Royle, a jazzy, pretty, worldly-wise modiste's mannequin, whose infatuation for Fred Ketlar, famous jazz band leader, involves her in a sensational murder mystery trial. Calvin Clarke, the austere, puritanical district attorney, is the third angle in this complex love triangle.

AT THE GRAND

Wednesday night the Grand will have "The Wolf Man," with J. B. Warner as the star, as the feature picture. Thursday, Friday and Saturday Harold Lloyd's "Dr. Jack" will play a return engagement, and because it is Christmas week the Grand will have an added feature. "The Dangerous Flirt," starring Evelyn Brent, the famous mannequin. Both pictures are full length and will mean a double show.

THE GUMPS—MOTHER'S LITTLE GIRL

Only One More Day

And Santa Claus
With his Christmas cheer
Will be with us.
And we scarce know
Just what to write
For we suppose
That everyone
Knows just about
What they will get
For friends and folks.
But then again
On second tho't
There may be those
Just like ourselves,
Who've found it hard
To get the thing
That we desire
To give our friends.
And so to these,
If any there be,
We would suggest
That we still have
Just one Floor Lamp
At half the price
That it should bring
And we have left
Three Boudoir Lamps
That are simply fine
For any girl
Or woman either
And the prices now
Are very low.
A Heating pad
Is convenient
If you should need
Some heat applied
To a sore spot
And we have some
That you can buy
So very low
You can't afford
To go without.
These are a few
Of the Christmas things
We have in stock
For your approval
And if you buy
You will not err
For every one
Will represent
The Christmas Spirit.
And so we say
To everyone
A Merry Christmas.

IS YOUR WORK HARD?

Many Salem Folks Have Found How To Make Work Easier

What is so hard as a day's work with an aching back?

Or sharp stabs of pain at every sudden twist or turn?

There is no peace from that dull ache.

No rest from the soreenss, lameness and weakness.

Many folks have found relief through Doan's Pills. They are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Salem people recommend Doan's.

Mrs. George Woerther, 54 West Green st, Salem, says: "My kidneys were not in good shape and caused me trouble. I was very nervous and the lightest bit of housework was too much for me. Pains through my kidneys were the worst of my trouble and I had that bearing down feeling in my back. Before my kidneys had a chance to get worse, I used Doan's Pills. Two boxes rid me of the pains and I felt better all over."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Woerther had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv

CLERKS LOSE IN COURT FEE CASE

Naturalization Case Fees Can't Be Retained, Is High Court Decree

Columbus, Dec. 23. — Despite the fact that an act of congress authorizes common pleas court clerks to keep half of the fees collected in naturalization cases, the state supreme court today by implication ruled that this money belongs to the county in which the fee is collected.

The supreme courts decree upholds a ruling issued by the state bureau of public accounting.

Announcement was made that the supreme court has rejected the appeals of Jesse G. Francis, Hugh Swaney and J. Arthur Ferris, former clerks of the Mahoning county common pleas court, and their survey companies, who sought reversal of the judgment of the lower courts which sustained the bureau of accounting's ruling and ordered them to pay into the Mahoning county treasury a total of $7,953.50.

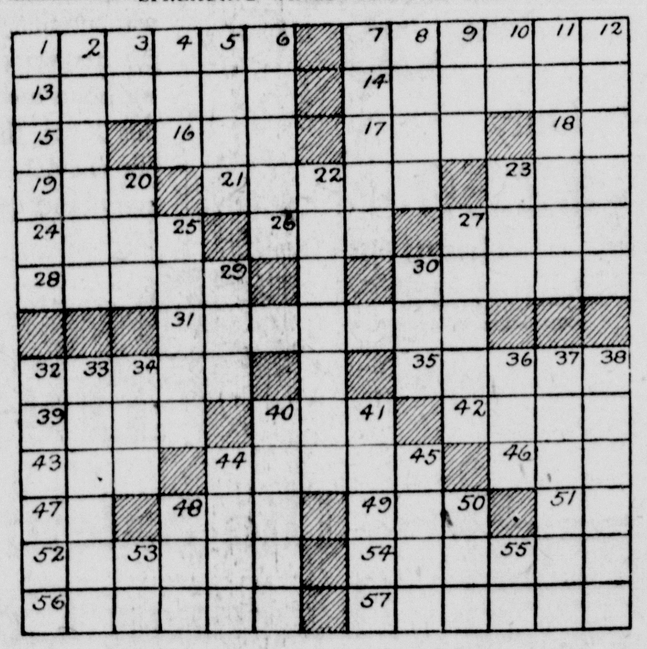

This amount represented half of the fees collected by the three clerks in naturalization cases as used by a federal law.

Ferris and his bondsmen were sued for $4,650.50; Francis $3,310, and Swaney $393.

St. Paul—John Daley, after a century of investigating, celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary by announcing, "There ain't no Santa Claus."

TODAY'S RECIPES

Corn Fritters—Take two cups of canned corn, two well beaten eggs, half a teaspoon of flour pressed down and heaped a little and one cupful of cold milk. Have ready a hot frying pan well greased and drop in the batter by spoonfuls. There should be enough for a dozen fritters. Do not let them touch. Cook in relays, drying on one side four minutes, then turn. These are delicious served with chicken or as a breakfast dish.

Brown Bread—Two cups sour milk, two teaspoons soda, one teaspoon salt, one-half cup brown sugar, one-half cup molasses, two cups graham flour, one cup white or whole wheat flour, one cup seeded raisins (or nuts). Stir the soda into the milk and add to the remaining ingredients. Mix together well. Pour into greased pans. Allow to stand one hour Bake one hour. This amount makes one large loaf or three loaves of baking powder can size.

Cold Slaw—Chop cabbage fine. A little onion and green pepper may be chopped with the cabbage. Pour over it the following dressing: One-half teaspoon salt, one egg, one half cup milk, two teaspoons butter, one-fourth cup vinegar, one-half teaspoon mustard, one teaspoon sugar, one-fourth teaspoon pepper. Heat milk, add dry ingredients to egg. Then add milk to egg mixture. Cook to a custard. Add butter and vinegar and strain over cabbage. Set away to cool.

CHRISTMAS CANDY

Now is the time to make your Christmas candy and the fondant, cooked or uncooked, is the foundation of the sweets. To make a cooked fondant, mix two cups sugar, two-thirds cup water and one-sixteenth teaspoon cream of tartar in a saucepan and boil without stirring until syrup forms a soft ball when dropped in cold water. Let cool for a few minutes and turn out on a buttered platter. When the bottom of the platter feels the same temperature as the hand, beat the syrup until thick. Then knead with the hands until very firm and creamy, place in a bowl, cover and use as needed

Apple Dumplings—One quart flour, one tablespoon lard, same of butter, three teaspoons baking powder, a little salt, enough milk to make the above into a soft dough: roll out the paste to less than one-half inch thickness; cut into squares; place in the center of each an apple pared and cored; bring the corners together; steam one and one-half hours or bake until done. Serve with liquid sauce flavored with nutmeg.

SUGGESTIONS

Wild fowl, of old, will be improved by keeping for a time, but the young birds are best if dressed immediately. Woodcocks, snipes and green plover are roasted without being drawn. Put a piece of buttered toast under each bird to catch the trail. Baste well with butter. If the hunter brings home wild pigeons, serve them broiled or roasted if you prefer, but they make delicious pies. When roasting partridge and pheasant leave the head on and turn it under the wing. Remove the craw by making a slit in the back of the neck. Cut off the claws and twist the feet close to the body. Tie slices of fat bacon over the breasts. Break the back so it will lie better in the pan.

Lorain—City council made the first move toward obtaining a modern garbage reduction plant for Lorain, when an ordinance ordering the service director to advertise for bids on a reduction plant was passed at a special meeting.

LATEST IN STYLE FOR WOMEN

Paris, Dec. 23.—By their beads you shall know the winter evening gowns which now sparkle and glitter making every eveing gathering a veritable fairy-like affair.

The all-over beaded frock, however, has given way somewhat to semi-beading. If, for instance, the skirt is embroidered, the bodice is unornamented or often the frock has the effect of a jumper of an elaborate type with the bodice embroidered to a point below the hips while the skirt is left plain Beaded aprons are very popular, the apron being embroidered in beads or a design of metal threads while the rest of the dress is left unornamented. Fine beads in all colors are employed in various new designs.

Anette Mills, the popular dancer that is making a big stir in Paris these days, is wearing a delightful gown in silver lame embroidered with stones. Another of her gowns is in pale green chiffon with the skirt edged with wide points of silver lame. A pearl and brilliant embroidered spray comes from the skirt to the neck line and the effect is like that of water catching the lights and scintillating with every movement.

A charming gold lace evening frock comes woth gold beads outlining the flowered design in the lace made with a circular skirt and the severe lines of the bodice broken by the shoulder drapery. The Marquise de Fuete Hermosa is wearing a very chic beaded model with pearls almost covering the black velvet skirt and wide girdle.

Good Dispositions Invaluable

You can't watch your disposition too carefully. A crab and a grouch are rarely successful. If your liver and stomach are in an unhealthy condition you can not have a sunny disposition because they affect the brain as well as the entire system. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has been usually successful in such cases. Our advice to everyone troubled in this way, especially when accompanied with bloating in the stomach, is to try this remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. At all druggists.

Perhaps This Story Is Colored

Mansfield, Dec. 23. — Mildred Blue was black; now she's both black and blue.

Her hubby, Hiram, was also black, but he got green with jealousy and saw red.

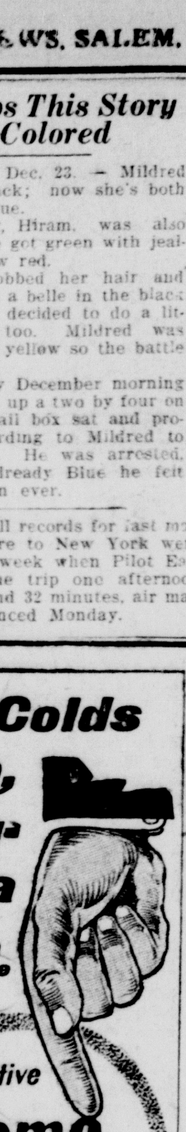

Mildred bobbed her hair and became quite a belle in the black belt. Hiram decided to do a little bobbing, too. Mildred was anything but yellow so the battle began.

In the gray December morning Hiram pulled up a two by four on which his mail box sat and proceeded, according to Mildred to beat her up. He was arrested, and being already Blue he felt more so than ever.

Cleveland—All records for fast mail flying from here to New York were shattered last week when Pilot Earl Ward made the trip one afternoon in two hours and 32 minutes, air mail officials announced Monday.

She spoke highly of the manner in which Mrs. Weikart had performed her duties in the chapter during the past year. Mrs. Weikart in a few well chosen words accepted the gift and thanked the chapter.

At the close of the meeting a delightful lunch was served by the committee in charge. George Ripper, a member of the chapter, presented two fine angel food cakes and brick ice cream centered with a red Christmas bell, in honor of his birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Ira F. Mellinger entertained at dinner on Monday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Mellinger.

A Merry Christmas to All!

It's nearly all over but the shouting—and paying the bills. (But even paying bills will not be so bad so long as the shouting and laughter of the children is still in our ears.

For something like the 1926th time little feet in all the nations of the earth will scurry to and fro in the business of hanging stockings, and there'll be millions of sparkling eyes defying the sand man till they're literally driven off to bed.

When that's over and you drop into the favorite chair to give a last look at all the Christmas fixin's before turning out the lights, then give us just one fleeting thought and remember that we wish you all the happiness that Christmas should mean to all men everywhere.

COUNTY SCHOOLS ARE NOT FACING MONEY SHORTAGE

Supt. Leonard Says Every School In District Is In Good Condition

"Very few schools in the state of Ohio will be compelled to close during the present fiscal term on account of a lack of finances and none will have to close in Columbiana county," declared County Supt. of Schools H. C. Leonard. "There has been a lot said about school finances of late, but considerable of this talk is without foundation."

There has been some talk about certain schools in Columbiana county running short of finnaces, but the records in the office of the county board of education now show that so far as the local situation is concerned ample money is available for the operation of all schools during the present term.

"There are 2,500 school districts in Ohio," Mr. Leonard explained. "No exempted village schools in any county in Ohio are closed and none will close. We have this information from the State Department of Education. No village or centralized schools in Ohio are closed, and no school district maintaining a high school in any part of Ohio is closed for the lack of funds. There are less than a dozen districts out of the 2,500 in the state that are anticipating financial trouble that might lead to a shortening of the terms.

Best Schools Financed

"In the districts where they have the best schools and where the schools are costing the most they are being adequately financed. This is remarkable," Mr. Leonard went on to explain, "but it is easy to understand. The school sentiment that provides good schools also provide the money to maintain them.

"In the district that has permitted its schools to close all kinds of excuses and reasons are being given. They blame it on the State Department of Education, the County Board of Education and the County Superintendent, the State Teacher's Association and the state laws.

None of these are valid excuses. The financial distress of the schools of the state has been over presagented and highly exaggerated. The Department of Education has made a thorough and complete survey of the state and has found that all the districts except a very few are adequately financing their schools, and those few districts that are now doing so could finance them if the people really believed in schools and education.

"I am happy to say that Columbiana county is in excellent shape so far as school finances are concerned. Some districts could use more money, but that is always the case everywhere. Many districts put over the three mill levy at the November election, and those who did not vote on the proposition have sufficient school funds to carry on the educational work of the district."

MUNSEY ESTATE ESTIMATED AT SIXTY MILLIONS

New York, Dec. 23—The funeral of the late Frank A. Munsey, newspaper and magazine publisher, will be held tomorrow in the Cathedral of St. John. It is expected that Bishop William T. Anning, long personal friend of Mr. Munsey, will officiate.

The honorary pallbearers, yet to be selected will be chosen from the host of public men who knew the dead publisher.

Estimates of the value and probable disposition of the Munsey estate and newspaper properties were unavailable this morning. The Munsey estate has been variously estimated at from $25,000,000 to $60,000,000.

His properties included besides the New Sun and the New York Telegram, the Mohican Company chain of retail grocery stores; considerable retail holdings in New York city, on Long Island and in the Adirondacks the Mohican hotel and the Plant building in New London, Conn; the Munsey building and the Munsey Trust company in Washington.

Mr. Munsey was a bachelor. His only close relatives was an elderly sister. Executives of Munsey's New York publications, were in ignorance of any plans the publisher had for disposal of his estate.
